

Bernice Palma Taylor

September 14, 1919 - October 14, 2010

"World's greatest mother and grandmother." Bernice P. Taylor of Washougal, WA, passed away on Oct. 14, 2010 at the Ray Hickey Hospice House at the age of 91. She was born in Alexander, ND to Andrew and Pauline Eikren and graduated from high school and later received a degree in teaching. Bernice taught in a one-room classroom for several years. She enjoyed being a homemaker, collecting dolls and rock hunting. Bernice is survived by three sons, Dennis, Gary and Rodney; and five grandchildren, Isaac, Molly, Brian, Adam and Katy. She was preceded in death by her husband of 63 years, Woodrow. Special thanks to the staff at Ray Hickey Hospice House where the family requests any donations be sent to in her memory.
