“ My mom, the glue that held us all together! She taught me how to learn from everyday lessons, whether easy or hard. Most of her life, she had it hard. She raised us 8 kids and did so often times with no husband supporting her daily. She loved God with all of her heart, mind and soul! That is the biggest gift she gave us kids. I love you and miss you mama. I know I will see you again some day. Love, Ruthie

“ Hi Momma I miss you and love you to heaven and back! I am so happy you are no longer suffering and that you are rejoicing in heaven with the family and Jesus. Us kids have been very busy taking care of your home and we have had many tears and laughs going through your things. It was so good to be in your home for so long with my siblings. I love you, Ruthie

“ Mom was the kind of person that held everything together...she organized the holidays, followed up on birthdays, was the keeper of all of the important dates that everyone needed. Mom had broad shoulders and raised us kids after being abandoned...she truly was a saint! I LOVE YOU MOMMA! IAN
