“ Ms Connie was such a wonderful person to me. I would always be able to go to her with anything and she would always listen and give me some advice. If I took the advice I don't remember. She gave GREAT hugs when you needed one. But when you heard her say your name with that "voice" you know you did something wrong. I loved her very much. She was like another mother to me. Just a wonderful lady. Heaven has one of the good ones now and I will be so happy when I can see her and Mr Lee again.
