

Daniel S. Martini

October 25, 1959 - March 20, 2025

My friend and Family at 2:00am on March 20th, 2025 the love of my life DANIEL MARTINI became whole again no more sickness he can walk and run and stand again. He promised he would wait for me in heaven. he is now with Jesus and all his love ones.

Daniel Martini was an amazing husband and father and grandfather.

A resident of Vancouver Washington since 2010 and lived most his life in Carmichael, California.

Daniel Martini was born on October 25, 1959 to Joseph and Gloria Martini in Wichita Kansas.

No one who met Daniel forgot his infectious passion to cars. He spent his life career as a mechanic for Toyota Dealership and also a service writer until he retired in 2020. Then spent the rest of his life in the garden ?? of his dream and had the best garden around, and shared his fun with the neighborhood.

He married Jody and they just celebrated 30 years together. They had two sons Joseph Martini and Matthew Martini and he had one son from a previous marriage Daniel Martini and also step father to Dick Woolery and Christopher Woolery.

He had four brothers also a sister Michael Martini and Andrew Martini and Jeffrey Martini and Larry Martini (Deceased) and Christine Anderson.

Daniel Martini will be so missed. FLY HIGH MY BEAUTIFUL ANGEL YOU GOT YOUR GOLDEN WING. DANIEL WE LOVE YOU ??
