

Eldon Wayne McCallum

April 23, 1941 - April 14, 2021

Eldon W. McCallum passed away at his home in Vancouver, WA, April 14, 2021. He was born in Yakima, WA, April 23, 1941.

He retired from Clark County PUD and was a member of St. Andrew Lutheran Church.

Eldon was devoted to and loved spending time with his family. He loved photography, landscaping, all flowers and plants, and talking about electricity.

He is survived by his wife, Beverly A. McCallum; his daughter, Carrie Sowers (Jim); his son, Steven McCallum (Heidi); Angela Perry (Alfredo), Allen Perry (Krystal), Anna Perry (Forest), and April Perry; his 15 cherished grandchildren and one great granddaughter. He is also survived by one brother, Gordon McCallum and numerous nieces and nephews.

Join us for a celebration of life graveside service on Monday, April 19, 2021, at Evergreen Memorial Gardens at 10:00 a.m., with a time of sharing and snacks following the service at Hawkinson Meadows Park.

Masks and social distancing required.