

Floyd Bruce Case

November 1, 1919 - January 18, 2015

FLOYD BRUCE CASE November 1, 1919 ~ January 18, 2015 Floyd Bruce Case, age 95, a resident of Fairway Village in Vancouver, WA, went to be with the Lord on January 18, 2015. He was born on Nov. 1, 1919 in Sherwood (Newberg) OR, and lived most of his life in Beaverton, OR. He is survived by his wife, Verona "Ronnie"; four daughters - Karen Hallwyler, Susan Robinson, Kim Wanecke, and Kathyellen Blovits; seven grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wives, Marion Gunnell Case and Sue Robinson Case. Floyd graduated from Newberg High School and attended the following colleges: George Fox University, University of Colorado, and Linfield College. He formed Floyd B. Case Co. on Sept. 8, 1945, and maintained an interest in the business until Nov. 1, 2013, at which time his partner of long standing, Phil Schmidt, took over the company. Floyd B. Case Co. is a food marketing-consulting business. During his career, Floyd traveled the world extensively and promoted food products abroad for the Dept. of Commerce and for companies he represented. He may be best known for his "salesmanship," entrepreneurial spirit, and absolute care for customers. Floyd was active in his church: ushering, serving on various stewardship boards, and working in prison ministries. He was a low handicap golfer and earlier, an avid pilot. He enjoyed vacationing in Palm Springs each winter. Most of all, he loved being with family and friends, anywhere and anytime. His love of life and positive attitude always brought out the best in everyone. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to: Community Home

Health and Hospice, 14508 NE 20th Ave., Ste. 201, Vancouver, WA 98686. A memorial service for Floyd will be held on Saturday, January 24th, 10:00 a.m., at First Church of God, 3300 NE 78th St., Vancouver, WA. Please sign his Guest Book at www.columbian.com/obits.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 08:09 PM