

Gladys Teresa Walkemeyer

April 4, 1933 - May 30, 2014

Gladys Teresa Walkemeyer, 81, of Vancouver, WA, passed away May 30, 2014. She was born in Honolulu, HI to Stephen and Dorothy Serrao. Gladys was a member of the Jehovah's Witness Rock Creek Congregation and enjoyed cooking, singing, and studying the bible. Survivors include her children, Michael (Cheryl) Malone, David Malone, Michelle (Jeb) Bladine, Denise (Charles) Mayfield, Laurie Walkemeyer, Terrie (Jerry) Pryne, Lisa (Darryl) Toland, Christine (Steve) Mox and Karl Walkemeyer; 25 grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren; sister, Barbara (Greg) Simao; and numerous nieces, nephews, adopted children and grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband of 49 years, Darrell Walkemeyer. A memorial service will be held on Sat., June 7, 2014 at 2:00 p.m. at Lewisville Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, 33209 Lewisville Hwy. Please sign her guest book at: www.columbian.com/obits.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 09:41 PM

“ So many memories....my mom was amazing. Everyone loved her. She was an AMAZING cook. She could make the most awesome meals. She fed 11 people on pennies. The famous chefs on tv could hv taken classes from her! Her fav channel was the cooking channel. She loved old movies. Especially musicals, like FUNNY GIRL & FIDDLER ON THE ROOF. Her first love was her God Jehovah. She LOVED talking to people about the bible and conducting bible studies. She was an AMAZING BIBLE TEACHER! Going from scripture to scripture, studying and explaining. She loved it and so did everyone else she taught. She loved to sing and dance. Teaching us kids to jitterbug. I am going to miss her more than anyone will ever know. She was my friend, my callin nurse, my on line chef advice, & my bible teacher, I cant wait to see her again in perfect health in Jehovah's new system. We Love u mom and will see u soon. For now sleep.

christine walkemeyer - June 08, 2014 at 12:00 AM