

Jack J. Baldwin

February 28, 1918 - January 19, 2013

JACK J. BALDWIN February 28, 1918 - January 19, 2013 Jack J. Baldwin, 94, died peacefully, after a brief illness, on Saturday, January 19, at his residence in Vancouver. He was born on February 28, 1918 in Woodburn, OR, the youngest of three sons of Jack and Bertha [Crumpacker] Baldwin. After graduating from high school, he spent over three years at Oregon State College. He was exempted from military service in WWII because they could not provide a uniform for this exceptionally tall man! Jack married June S. Semmler of Portland in 1941, and the couple did everything together for more than 71 years! They designed and built their home in the Hazel Dell area, where they lived for most of their life together. Jack was employed for over thirty years as a supervisor at Alcoa's Vancouver plant. He was a member of Vancouver BPOE Elks Lodge #823. In retirement, Jack enjoyed outdoor activities, such as gardening, golf, fishing and camping, and bird hunting with one of his three beloved German Shorthair dogs at his side. Viewing sporting events was a primary interest, especially baseball. The Baldwins were charter members of the Green Meadows Golf & Country Club. The couple traveled a lot, took several ocean cruises, and enjoyed participating in the Fisher group, seniors who take trips together throughout the Pacific Northwest. Jack is survived by his widow, June, cousins Rich and Connie Meyer and family, Seattle and Boston, and nephew Bill and Kathy Semmler and family, Spokane, Montana and Alaska. A private graveside service will be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens. Memorial gifts may be made to your favorite charity.

“ Will miss the many conversations about working at ALCOA, sports and life. At least now Jack can play another 18 holes of golf, fish for salmon, and play with his dogs which he loved. Say hi to Junie for us Jack, God Bless.
