

Jean Anna Adair

December 27, 1933 - October 16, 2014

On October 16, 2014, Jean Adair peacefully entered through the gates of heaven. Jean was born in Mullan, Idaho on December 27, 1933 to Mary and Eino Boutinen, and eventually made her home in Battle Ground, Washington. Through the years Jean was a business woman, general manager of a local shipyard, and went on to run her own company in the transportation industry. She loved being involved with her children's activities, and volunteering. She volunteered with the Cub Scouts as both a den mother and Webelo leader, Alcoa Little League, Girl Scout Brownies, and was a reading tutor at Walnut Grove Elementary School for many years. Jean loved sewing and spent countless hours sewing costumes for her daughter's baton competitions, along with uniforms for the Boy Scouts. She was a mentor to our youth, and a wonderful role model. Jean loved tinkering in her yard, going to bazaars, and attending rodeos. She has been to rodeos everywhere from the Calgary Stampede, Cheyenne Rodeo and Pendleton Round-Up, to the National Finals in Las Vegas, Nevada. Jean truly loved her family, and time spent with her eight grandchildren was especially cherished. She loved with such a big and generous heart. She was a wonderful wife, mother, and grandmother. Jean joins her parents, and younger brother, John Boutinen, that preceded her to their eternal resting place. Jean is survived by her husband: Walter Gerald "Jerry" Adair; children; son, Wes Hickey, his wife Diane, and granddaughters, Mackenzie and Sierra; daughter, Cindy Nesbitt, her husband John, and grandsons, Trevor, Nathan, Dawson, and granddaughter, Jasmine; daughter,

Linda Rae Hickey and granddaughters, Solana and Iris; sisters, Edna McPherson, and Aileen Burchett; brother, Al Boutinen. She is also survived by numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.
