April 29, 1935 - June 12, 2021

Lyla A. Bullinger, 86, passed away peacefully early on the morning of June 12th, 2021 at Legacy Salmon Creek Hospital.

Lyla was born on April 29th, 1935 in Bottineau County, North Dakota to Hans and Hartha Zimmerman. She moved to Seattle in 1954 and found work as a secretary at the Mayflower Insurance Exchange. She married her husband Dayton in 1955 and started their family.

Dayton's career brought their family to Vancouver, Washington in 1968 where their family continued to grow as she served as a homemaker and completed her studies in practical nursing. She will be remembered as a caring, faithful, and tenacious woman.

In her early days she enjoyed bowling, working in her yard, gardening, and decorating for the holidays. She loved playing bingo throughout her life and even won a Pontiac in 1989. Lyla spent every Sunday that she could at church where she shared stories of her family and dog, Chelsea. She never missed any events her children participated in and enjoyed traveling and spending time with friends and family. Throughout her life Lyla was a dedicated Blazers, Gonzaga (GO ZAGS!) and Mariners fan.

She was the proud mother of five children: Patricia Garver (Frank), Kenneth Bullinger, Jeff Bullinger (Pam), Kimberly Amery (Guy), and Steven Bullinger (Chris).

Lyla is survived by her twelve grandchildren; and fifteen great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

Lyla was preceded in death by her husband Dayton, sisters: Marlene Ellsworth and Lucille Lentz and her parents.
