

Ralph Henry Tarrant

October 16, 1928 - November 5, 2010

Ralph was born in Ashgrove, MO to Robert and Amanda Tarrant. He and his family moved to Vancouver, WA during the war. He graduated from Vancouver High School in 1946. Ralph worked for Jakes Wholesale Meats where he learned to be a butcher. After leaving Jakes, he worked with Walt Hauser at Walts Custom Meats. He went to work at Safeway in 1970 and worked there until retiring in 1990. Ralph married Jennett Welker on Dec. 27, 1949 and they had three children together. He loved fishing and story telling. Ralph loved his family, helping and caring for them and he especially loved his grandkids and great-grandkids. Ralph is survived by his loving wife of 60 years, Jennett; daughter, Linda DeLawder; son, Robert (Reta) Tarrant; daughter-in-law, Patti Tarrant; five grandchildren, Brian DeLawder, Jami Tarrant, Bekki Harter, Baily and Alex Tarrant; five great-grandchildren, Blake, Kelsey and Derrik DeLawder, Terrill and Rylee Harter; sister, Fran Winters; two brothers-in-law, Roland Welker and Jerry Eurich; and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his mother and father; son, Larry Tarrant; five siblings; sister-in-law, Eleanor Welker; and brother-in-law, Don Winters.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 09:10 PM