

Ruby Jane Henley

April 12, 1919 - June 1, 2010

Ruby lived in Camas for over 60 years and most recently in Vancouver. She was active in church, American Legion Auxiliary and served as a faithful Girl Scout leader. She also managed the Camas Roller Skating Rink for more than 20 years. Ruby especially enjoyed her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She also had a green thumb and enjoyed sharing the fruits of her labor in the garden. Her husband, Floyd, preceded her in death after 60 years of marriage. Her grandson, Marcus, and granddaughter, Pamela, also preceded her in death. She is survived by her son, Bob (Marie); daughters, Susan (James) and Nancy; 4 grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren.
