

Suzanne Alveta Thayer

March 23, 1947 - May 10, 2017

SUZANNE A. THAYER March 23, 1947 ~ May 10, 2017 Suzanne A. Thayer, age 70, of Vancouver, Washington, died May 10, 2017. She was born March 23, 1947 in Jamestown, New York to William and Nancy Thayer. After attending the University of Bridgeport for Fashion Merchandising and Buying in Connecticut, Suzanne traveled and lived in Miami, FL, Las Vegas, NV and Brian Head, UT and was self-employed in Real Estate and Condominium Management. Relocating to Washington, she worked in the airline business before continuing her education at Clark College in Vancouver and worked as an Adjunct Faculty member before she retired. Suzanne is survived by her loving partner, Patrick Miller; sisters and brothers, William Thayer of NV, Margaret (Peggy) Young, of VT, Jack Thayer, of NY and Katherine (Blanche) Milliman of NY; as well as several cousins, nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, Nancy and Bill; and her brother, Steven Thayer. At Suzanne's request, no public service will be held. Arrangements are through the Evergreen Memorial Gardens in Vancouver. One of Suzanne's favorite expressions was: 'It's not the date you were born or the date you died that is important, it's the dash in between.' Please sign her Guest Book at www.columbian.com/obits.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 08:39 PM

“ Lost contact with Susie years ago. Always liked her a lot from kindergarten to graduation from Chautauqua Central School...admired her for her personality with a tough home life. A hard worker...I always hoped she found a good life! Sorry to read the write up in 5/16/17 Jamestown paper. I thought about her every time I drove past her old home.

Pat Wescott - May 16, 2017 at 12:00 AM